

Local Staffing Company Becomes Express Employment Professionals Franchise

JANESVILLE, Wis., June 29, 2009 – Vicki Donalson, owner of Affordable Personnel Resources, announces her decision to become an Express Employment Professionals franchise. The office is open and ready for business under the Express name, according to Donalson.

Donalson will continue to help local job seekers find positions and locate the best-qualified employees for area businesses. Express offers full-time recruiting and interviewing, as well as traditional, temporary staffing in a variety of fields, including administrative, customer service, technical, professional and commercial.

Donalson serves on the executive board of the Rotary Gardens and the Stateline Festival and is a member of the Lions Club and the Small Business Council. She was named Volunteer of the Year by the Forward Janesville community.

“The culture of Express and its vision for respecting people and impacting business, along with its operating philosophy and resources, will allow my company to grow in ways that it would not have as an independent business,” Donalson said.

The Janesville office is located at 503 Main Street. The office is currently taking applications. Businesses seeking employees may stop by the office, or call (608)741-1600.

Headquartered in Oklahoma City, Express Employment Professionals puts 350,000 people to work each year with nearly 600 franchises in four countries. Express provides expertise in evaluation hire, temporary staffing, professional search and human resources.
